2. What lifestyles today arise before God? What do you think God wants us to do about it?
3. Jonah tried to run from God’s plan. How do we act like Jonah?
4. Read chapter 3. After spending some time in the bellow of a giant fish, pondering if he might have made a bad choice, God offers Jonah another chance to do what he was supposed to do. Jonah does. What difference does his new found faithfulness make in the lives of some totally lost people?
5. Sometimes we can be like Jonah and not believe certain people can change. Who do you think would be an unlikely prospect for being willing to change?
6. Read 4:1-4. What Jonah ticked off?
7. Are there any people or sins within people that you think should get what’s coming to them rather than forgiveness? What do you think God has to say to us when we act like Jonah in this area of our faith?
8. In chapter 4:11 God tells Jonah that there were more than 120,000 people who couldn’t tell their right hand from their left. What does God imply to Jonah and to us from that fact?
