“Design What You Want to Do With Your Life” – 1 PETER 1:13-2:3

Icebreaker: If suddenly someone offered you the greatest job in the world and said, “You got it. You are exactly the right person.” What would you want that job to be?

God has given us the great blessing of design our own life. We can be whoever we want to be. We can do whatever we want to do. In light of that fact, let’s look at what God says about our design.

Encounter the Word

1. Read 1 Peter 1:13-16. God says we are to be holy in all we do. What instructions does He give us that would help us be able to do that?

2. Read 1 Peter 1:17-21. Why does God tell us to live our lives on earth in reverent fear?

3. Read 1 Peter 1:22-25. What is the perishable seed that God refers to and what is the imperishable seed?

4. Read 1 Peter 2:1-2:3. If we have been born again what does God expect of us?

Encounter Life

1. How do you prepare mind to function in this world in a way that pleases Christ?

2. Do you really have a reverent fear of the Lord? If so, how does that affect your choices?

3. God says that once we have been born again, we should love each other deeply from the heart. How would you grade yourself on this area of your faith? A (excellent) to F (failing)?

4. God gives us the picture of a crying infant demanding his milk. That is the image God wants to see within each of us, but not for milk, but for Him and His Word and His Spirit. Describe your craving.
