

LIFE GROUP STUDY – Dr. Harley Ihm

“Two Bosses Will Kill You” – Luke 16:1-15

Icebreaker: Describe the best and worst bosses you’ve ever had.

Jesus often taught by using stories about life and people. He would tell a story that could very likely happen and use it to press home a powerful point to help anyone who wanted to listen seriously.

An Encounter with the Word of God

1. Read Luke 16:1-2. What was the manager accused of? What did the rich man, his boss, want him to do?
2. What current managers do you see who misuse and waste their boss’s possessions?
3. Read Luke 16:3-7. Was the manager sorry for what he had done? What was his solution to the problem? What is your opinion of this manager?
4. Have you ever known someone who was that dishonest with their boss?
5. Read Luke 16:8-15. Why would the master commend or compliment the manager for his dishonesty?
6. How can people of the light, meaning Christians, lack shrewdness in dealing with other people?
7. What does God have to say about how we use our worldly wealth?
8. How do people try to serve two masters, meaning God and stuff?
9. What do you think Jesus is trying to tell you through this study?
